We work with numerous factories and suppliers getting our clients' competitive prices. Should you wish to work together, would you want to order products directly from us?

What is your investment for the room(s)/ whole project?

Not defining your investment can make a great deal of unhappiness as your project progresses. You need to know what to expect budget-wise, and as you can appreciate, most design materials can cost a couple of hundred dollars all the way to thousands.... so we just need to understand if there's room for a little extravagance or if strict discipline is required.

How involved would you like to be in the process?

Thank you for completing this questionnaire. Please email this back to us so we review it in advance and make the most of our time together!
